GAME NOTES

NEW FACES READY TO MAKE THEIR MARK

11 new players have earned their spot on our 22.23 Warriors roster including, Shawn Evans - 8x Mann Cup Champion, 2x Minto Cup Champion and 2007 NLL Champion. Also, among the new players joining the Warriors this season are defenders Matt Delmonico (Port Coquitlam), Jonathan Gagliardi (Oakville, ON), Harrison Smith (North Vancouver), Aidan Solomon (Victoria), Graden Soucy (Nanaimo), and Jacob Motiuk (Calgary, AB) with forwards Marcus Klarich (Burnaby) and Chase Scanlan (Seneca Nation, NY) plus goaltenders Aden Walsh (Oakville, ON) and Ethan Woods (Owen Sound, ON).

NEW FACES BEHIND THE BENCH

Troy Cordingley & Phil Sanderson head into their first season leading the Warriors after management decided to make a change from long tenured head coach Chris Gill. Cordingley, who has 10 seasons behind the bench as an NLL head coach, compiling a .554-win percentage, most recently served as Assistant General Manager and Director of Scouting for the Buffalo Bandits. Cordingley brings Phil Sanderson, a 12-year NLL veteran and 3-time NLL Champions Cup winning defender, in as an assistant coach to join retained staff that includes Curtis Hodgson, Dan Perreault and Dwight Maetche behind the bench.

KEEPING UP WITH JONES

Vancouver Warriors forward Mitch Jones returns to action after having his 2021-2022 season cut short due to a foot injury that needed season ending surgery. Prior to the injury, Jones was the Warriors leading scorer with 12 goals and 14 assists, good for 26 points through 4 games. Jones' 6.5 points per game would have seen him finish 3rd in NLL scoring in a full 18 game season with 117 points, showing how significant of a loss he was for the Warriors. Jones, now back at full strength, is expected to lead a revamped offense that added Shawn Evans and Chase Scanlan to other core pieces like Keegan Bal, Kyle Killen and Adam Charalambides. Retooled and ready to roll, the Warriors are looking forward to have Jones back in an offense that is significantly more threatening with him on the floor than in the stands.

HOMECOMING

5 Warriors players, (Shawn Evans, Kyle Killen, Steve Fryer, Jonathan Gagliardi, and Aden Walsh), will make their homecoming as Ontario born players in the matchup vs the Rock in Toronto. Playing in front of family and friends is always a motivator for players, and this group should be excited to play in familiar territory. Coaches Cordingley and Sanderson will also feel at home as they have spent nearly the entirety of their career playing or coaching in Ontario. The Warriors are hoping to reap the benefits of the hometown boost by way of a season opening win in a hostile environment.
